LEARNING PRIMARY SCIENCE OUTDOORS

8th February 2027 9-3pm
Hertfordshire Zoo
£100

Evidence shows learning outdoors has many benefits for young people and their teachers, including:

- improving engagement
- a joy to learning
- and connections with nature.

Join us for this hands on training that will give you the tools, practical ideas and resources to plan and deliver effective outdoor learning in your setting to raise attainment and enthusiasm for science.
